PROGRAMME AND PROCEDURE FOR CELEBRATING THE 26TH JANUARY 1950.

1. The programme suggested in the States Ministry letter (submitted separately to the Chief Minister) has been examined, as instructed, with reference to the copy of the Draft Constitution of India put up herewith. A copy of the Constitution since obtained from the Library is also put up.

2. It will be seen from it that the provisions regarding the appointment by the President of the Rajpramukh and his holding office during the pleasure of the President, etc., do not apply to Mysore - vide Article 238 item (3). Under Article 366 item (21) (b) the Rajapramukh in relation to Mysore State means the person who for the time being is recognised by the President as the Maharaja of the State.

3. It is not clear whether any "recognition" of the Ruler of the State is contemplated before 26.1.1950 by the Governor-General or after 26.1.1950 by the President of the Republic of India.

4. In any case, it is stated in Article 238 item (5) that every Rajpramukh shall before entering upon his office make and subscribe in the presence of the Chief Justice of the High Court exercising jurisdiction in the State or in his absence the senior-most Judge of that Court available or in such other manner as may be prescribed in that behalf by the President an oath or affirmation in the following form, etc.

5. It is for orders whether the Ministry of States may be addressed regarding the procedure if any to be followed in regard to the oath taking Ceremony if any, to be held on 26.1.1950.

22nd December 1949.

Dear Mr. Buch,

Subject: Programme and Procedure for celebrating the 26th January 1950.

In continuation of my letter No.6492/C.B. dated 21st December 1949 on the above subject, I am desired to request you kindly to let me know whether it is necessary for His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to take an oath or affirmation as provided in Article 159 of the Constitution of India, and if so, whether there are any instructions regarding the person before whom such an oath is to be taken or the manner in which this is to be done. As you will see from Article 383 of the Constitution, it is provided that any person holding Office as Governor in any Province immediately before the commencement of the Constitution shall on such commencement be the Governor of the corresponding State specified. There does not seem to be a similar provision in respect of Rulers of States who will after 26th January 1950 function as Rajpramukhs of the States with which they are concerned, as Articles 155, 156 and 157 are omitted in so far as they relate to States in Part B of the First Schedule.

It may also be stated whether any "recognition" of the Ruler of this State, anew, is contemplated before 26.1.1950.

I am to request you kindly to clarify these points at once and to say whether it is intended that any Special Procedure is to be adopted on 26th January 1950 by His Highness the Maharaja for the purpose of taking an Oath (Vide Article 238 (5)).

Yours sincerely,
